For existing aviation professionals and those who aspire, please follow the directions below and submit your application and essays no later than 11:59 p.m. EST on September 7, 2020.

Note: There is no correct answer to these essay topics. Avfuel simply wants to get a feel for who you are, your enthusiasm for aviation and your dedication to the industry at large. We welcome everyone to apply who has a passion for aviation and wishes to pursue a meaningful career in that field. Your answers will be reviewed by an impartial board.

1. Write a single essay of 100 words or fewer answering the following two questions. Be sure to demonstrate the ways in which you are unique as an applicant.

- a. What makes you an aviator? If you're working toward becoming an aviator, why do you aspire to do so?
- b. How do you plan to use this scholarship money?

2. Please choose two out of the four essays below. Each answer should be no longer than 300 words:

- a. What do you feel is/was aviation's greatest contribution to society, and how does that inspire you?
- b. If you could choose any copilot, past or present, who would it be and where would you go? Why?
- c. What has been the greatest challenge you have faced as a pilot and how did you overcome it?
- d. How can you use aviation to enrich your community?

Purpose

Avfuel Corporation of Ann Arbor, Michigan, has established funds available for the purpose of furthering aviation education. These funds will be distributed under the name of the “AVTRIP Scholarship”. The AVTRIP Scholarship was designed to award one current AVTRIP member with funds to use toward furthering his or her aviation education. This scholarship will be in the amount of $2,000. These funds may be used for, but not limited to, the following areas: flight training, educational tuition fees, and a new license or rating. A maximum of one AVTRIP Scholarship will be awarded for each calendar year. Avfuel reserves the right to not award any scholarship in a given year if no sufficient application is received.

Eligibility

Applicants for the AVTRIP Scholarship must meet the following eligibility criteria.

- 1) Applicant must be a current AVTRIP Member (new member enrollments apply).
- 2) Applicant must have accrued 250 AVTRIP Points in the previous 24 months.
- 3) Applicant must demonstrate an interest in continuing their aviation education.
- 4) Applicant must complete all information in application packet.
- 5) Avfuel employees and/or their relatives are not eligible.

Application

All eligible applicants must complete and return the application packet by 11:59 p.m. EST on September 7, 2020, to be accepted. Return the application packet to avtrip@avfuel.com.

Selection Criteria

Avfuel Corporation will make the selection of the awarded recipient and industry representatives based solely on the answers of the application packet. Semi-finalists may be invited to a personal interview by staff members of Avfuel Corporation and industry representatives who will make the final selection. The AVTRIP Scholarship recipient and applicants will be notified.

Payment of Scholarship

The AVTRIP Scholarship will be distributed by check. The check will be made payable to the recipient and the educational institution of the recipient's choice. The check must be endorsed by both and must be used for the purposes of furthering the recipient's aviation education. The 2020 AVTRIP Scholarship must be redeemed by September 1, 2021.

Recipients must provide Avfuel Corporation with a detailed description of how the funds will be used.
